Harassment of foreign tourists

†1606. PROF. ALKA BALRAM KSHATRIYA: Will the Minister of TOURISM AND CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the number of foreign tourists who are visiting the country is decreasing due to teasing and harassment incidents with them;

(b) the reaction of Government thereto; and

(c) the number of such incidents which occurred in the last two years, State-wise?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM AND CULTURE (SHRIMATI AMBIKA SONI) (a) No, Sir. The foreign tourist arrivals to India during 2005 reached the level of 3.91 million and registered a growth of 13.2% over 2004.

(b) and (c) As Safety and Security is a State subject, data on incidents of teasing and harassment of tourists is not compiled by the Ministry of Tourism and Culture. However, in order to curb cases of cheating, fleecing, teasing and harassment of tourists, the Ministry of Tourism and Culture has advised all State Governments and Union Territories to deploy tourist police at all important tourist centres/destinations.

Encroachment of land around monuments

†1607. SHRI MANGANI LAL MANDAL: Will the Minister of TOURISM AND CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Archaeological Survey of India as well as other concerned departments are not able to check the encroachment on the monuments and places protected as historical, archaeological and heritage sites in the country as a result of which encroachment on land around such monuments/places is going on unabated;

(b) whether due to lack of coordination between Archaeological and Cultural Departments of concerned States and ASI, it is not being possible to stop such encroachments and to take action against the encroachers; and

(c) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM AND CULTURE (SHRIMATI AMBIKA SONI): (a) No, Sir. All possible steps are taken by the Archaeological Survey of India under the provision of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Sites and Remains Act, 1958 and Rules, 1959 in order to remove the encroachments in the protected monuments. A list of existing encroachment in Centrally protected monuments is enclosed as. Statement (See below).

(b) and (c) Assistance in containing and removing encroachments is sought from the respective State Government and where there are no fruitful results, action is initiated against the encroachers by filing cases in the court of law. The Superintending Archaeologists of Circles have also been vested with the powers of Estate Officer to issue eviction notices/orders to the encroachers under Public Premises (Eviction of Unauthorised Occupants) Act, 1971. They are also authorised to issue show cause notices under the provisions of Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Sites and Remains Act, 1958 and Rules 1959 followed by an order to the District Collector/Magistrate by Director General of Archaeological Survey of India to remove such encroachment under section 19(2) of the Act and Rules 38(2) of the Rule.

Cultural and Heritage sites in Andhra Pradesh

1608. SHRI NANDI YELLAIAH: Will the Minister of TOURISM AND CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) the details of the amount allocated and spent by her Ministry in and around the cultural and heritage sites of Andhra Pradesh during the last three years and till date, location-wise and year-wise;

(b) the steps taken/being taken to attract more domestic and foreign tourists to these sites;

(c) whether these steps have increased flow of tourists to these sites; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM AND CULTURE (SHRIMATI AMBIKA SONI): (a) Archaeological Survey of India maintains 137 centrally protected monuments/sites in the State of Andhra Pradesh. The details of expenditure incurred for conservation, protection and environmental development of these monuments/sites for the last three years and for 2005-06, location-wise is given in the statement-I enclosed. (See below)

(b) Basic tourist amenities such as toilet, drinking water and facilities to physically challenged tourists are provided at important monuments which attract large number of tourists. The Archaeological Survey of India has brought out informative brochures and guide books in respect of such monuments. Besides the Department of Tourism at the Central and State levels also bring out publicity materials for attracting tourists.

(c) and (d) Yes, the flow of tourists is on the increase as evidenced by the number of visitors in the ticketed monuments. Details are at statement-II.
